Everyone told me I should download a template and print my own staff paper. I have tried this, and it just doesn't come out that nice. Nothing beats a pack of professionally-printed staff paper. The lines are dark and uniform, the spacing is good, and it is printed close enough to the edges so you are not limited to just a couple measures per line. And you save your own time and ink compared to printing your own.

As a music student, I really like this staff paper because it is much easier to use single sheets compared to using a spiral notebook of staff paper. I also like that it is higher quality paper than compared to if you had just used your computer to print out your own. Easy to write & erase with pencil.

My staff paper arrived quickly. everyone uses binders and this is an awesome way of keeping everything organized and neat. Especially if you are taking theory and don't feel like drawing lines whenever you have to take notes!! Also good for composing. >.< Good paper and ink quality.

The lines in this notebook are very small. I have enlarged mine to be able to see what I have written. It may be okay for those who care read small notes The price is great so that's why I gave it a three.

As a music major (with plans for grad school in music theory) I just needed some more staff paper as I worked on analyzing pieces. The paper is high-quality, there are sufficient staves on each page, and there is plenty of paper per pad. I also love the pad format, because you can easily remove pages and still it's easy to carry around a whole bunch of staff paper.

Great! 3 hole punched loose leaf staff paper with a circle of fifths on the inside of the cover, just in case you need it.

Staff paper with binder holes pre-punched, wish I'd thought of that! We've been punching holes in our children's musical practice sheets for years! This is great, and shipping was quick. Great purchase.

This is great. Having it on a pad is so convenient because you don't have all these sheets lying around. Great quality, good size lines and spaces, good price. So much better than printing off of freesheetmusic or some random website.
