Summary Of All The Light We Cannot See: A Novel By Anthony Doerr

Synopsis

This is a summary based on the book "All the Light We Cannot See" by Anthony Doerr that is a National Book Award Finalist novel that offers a gripping tale of World War II and its aftermath. It is a book that is well worth the read when you have time to sit down and get lost within its pages. But for those of us that live hectic lives and want a quick read summary of this excellent well written novel then you will enjoy this summary of the book. In the novel the interwoven stories of the blind Marie-Laure LeBlanc, and the German orphan Werner Pfennig and others as they are brought into the conflict of the Second World War. The Sea of Flames Diamond is wrapped within the plot but not the focus with several characters connected to it. The events that take place are during the World War two-era France and Germany. Pivotal action mainly takes place in St. Malo, a French town next to the English Channel, historically this town was known for piracy, in the Second World War it was bombed. When the bombing occurred this is where the temporal focus of the novel lies, tying the observed reality to the text in a chronological setting this being an important factor when writing historical fiction. Making connections to real places and events helps to immerse us deeper into the narrative. This book does not use mighty prominent characters of the Second World War to focus on but instead it takes us to the small players, showing that these people are indeed, the backbone behind many a great leader and are the real power and strength of the countries they stand up and fight for. Why Should You Download this Book? Customer Reviews

I only received a summary of the first four chapters out of 17. I saw this nowhere in the description or customer reviews. Also, it was full of grammatical errors. Did something go wrong with my download?

Kindle seems to have opened up a market for students to sell their papers and creative writing projects for cash. Mr. Cooper's article is poorly written and is not a serious analysis of the subject matter. It is an attempt to make a quick buck and is an amazing scam.

The result of my purchase was disappointing. The narrative and analysis stop long before a satisfactory resolution is reached. I am aware that this is a Summary and Analysis; in truth, it is nothing near what I understood the promotional paragraphs to claim. The material that downloaded to my Kindle Fire is truncated, such that the story hangs in several parts in limbo! Thus, the money I spent for this item, based on .com promotional paragraphs, has been substantially wasted! I tried to contact .Com to ask if the material downloaded is what was intended or was there a preparation, promotion, or transmission mistake. I have been stymied in my efforts in that arena, too. Alas!

Anthony Doerr is a wonderful author and he is known to be detailed and complex with his themes and small ideas. I think it is wonderful that this summary doesn't give too much away but honestly does amazing justice to an amazing book. This was a great supplemental book.

Does not really summarize. Gives excerpts of early parts of the book. Commentary is lame. I wanted to review the book, which I read some time ago. This item would give a person an idea of whether to read it, but it definitely does not live up to the hype of a busy person knowing the book.

Zero stars, if it were allowed. How can someone expect people to purchase any "summary" or "review" of a book when the cover shows they don't even know the correct name of said book?

This was an exquisitely held my attention. I found my old self staying up well beyond my bed time to get some more pages read that day. I will be rereading it in the near future with new insights cleaned from my book club's discussion.

I would give it a 6 if I would allow it. Deserves all the awards it received. An obvious huge amount of research on radios of the 1920s, 1930s, and 1940s. along with that on birds, gemstones, the ruins, intersections, and grottoes of St. Malo, a photographic memory of the Paris Botanical Gardens and their accompanying museum (through both of which I have walked 3 or 4 times), and on and on. Some of the best war writing you will encounter, and lead characters you will never forget.
