Customer Reviews

Was the perfect addition to my safe space, until one of the pages gave me a paper cut. Clearly this was the intent behind the book to begin with, this is nothing but a white capitalist cis male conspiracy to bring another strong black womyn of colour down. Was going to give this 1 star, but I'm being stared at by my angry feminists so I give it 10/5, would freebleed on again.

Watched shoeonheads review of this book. Had to get one

Coloring helps me calm down and de-stress when I'm anxious. The fact that this book is pictures of badass feminists makes it even more enjoyable to color.

More fun than a Trump news report, and more politically correct.

My menstrual red crayon came melted. :(

You're never too old for coloring! I mean...if you're a feminist. Normal people are too old at around 12.

WARNING: don't read the reviews by those male mra/gamergate trolls. they claim to be feminist women, but they are IMPOSTERS!!! that said, here is my actual review: this brave little book was extremely helpful to me. since I'm not only transgender but also of transage, I have to cope with not only the gender but also the date of birth that was assigned to me without my consent. it's incredibly hard to pass, I keep getting kicked out of the girls locker room bc people keep mistaking me for a 45 yo man, when I am in fact a 8yo girl. but now I got this book and don't need to socialize at the local children's waterpark anymore! I made a ton of new friends at the playground by handing out copies of this coloring book. finally some peers for me to hang out with, have fun and learn about feminism. thanks!

It's a feminist reader, it's a coloring book, it's a work of art, it's Liberation. Ijeoma Oluo's book is worthy of the FUNNEST, funniest, Bad-Ass-iest late-night-feminist-coloring-party-cake-walk-potlucks. Get your shade on.get your learning on. Get your listening on. Get your therapeutic, cathartic, art-ing on.
