This is a much needed Bible study! If you want a closer walk with God and a chance to win the battle you fight with the enemy daily, you need to be prepared. Priscilla will help you do that with this study. She begins with an Introduction to the study. And then each week has a starting point with a video and some questions to answer. It continues with a daily in depth study including Scripture reading and questions. I did not have the video, so it was difficult to answer the weekly introduction questions, but the video lessons are available through Lifeway for personal or group studies. There are six weeks of lessons, and each week has five days to work through, following the introduction. After week one's "Sizing up the Enemy", each week is about a part of the armor necessary to defeat our enemy. Week two - The Belt of Truth, Week three - The Breastplate of Righteousness, Week four - The Shoes of Peace, Week five - The Shield of Faith, Week six - The Helmet of Salvation. There are also five Digging Deeper sections. Session seven ties it all up with the Sword of the Spirit. There is also a Leader Guide in the back as well as Prayer Strategies and cards to use with your prayers. This book is certainly a wonderful tool for growing in the Word. It can be used for personal Bible study at home or maybe a small group study or even a larger group. The videos would be helpful for each weeks introductions especially if you decide to use this as a group study. Through this study of Ephesians 6:10-19, Priscilla is helping us learn how to put on and use the armor of God, as well as, pray! Her goal is for us to really pray, not just talk about it, or think about it, but do it!!

This study took me FOREVER to get through! I believe I started it when Princess was under 4 months old. Perhaps 2 months old, we'll say, so this took me 4 months to get through. Please do not take this as an indication of the material. It's not, just an indication of my season of life. "Armor of God" by Priscilla Shirer is NOT the study that goes with the movie "War Room." That's the "Fervent" study, which I also posted about. However, "Armor of God" may as well have been intended to go along with them both. There is much the same ideas in "Armor of God" as in "Fervent." I can't relate it to the movie because I have yet to see it. But, in fact, some of the exact same material is in both studies/books. This was part of the reason I feel it took me awhile to get through because I have a difficult time re-reading the same material. However, I am thankful to have gone through this study (just an FYI, this study is just as great without the DVD portion. I didn't have access to that part, so I just did the daily study part). It opened my eyes to many areas of weakness that have succumbed to spiritual warfare. I feel like I'm at a weak season of my life with a new baby and all the exhaustion and emotions that brings, a child with a very difficult demeanor and all the exhaustion and emotions that brings, and a child with special needs and all the exhaustion and emotions that brings. PLUS just being a woman living with other people and all the exhaustion and emotions that brings. It's exhausting. And emotional. (haha) I've never extensively studied Ephesians 6:10-19 but now I have (even though I know there is more and more and more to this) through this book.
