Customer Reviews

I thought this was a great book with a lot of insight into the life of Bill Anderson. It shows the ups and downs of Bill's life. You experience all the different emotions along with Bill. You can get a feel of what it is like being in the country music industry. I recommend this book to everyone.

As a Bill Anderson fan, I truly enjoyed reading this autobiography. There is more to his life than just writing and singing and the only flaw I found was that on occasion he comes across with a little too much ego. It is well written and it seems to be an honest effort in telling his life story. If you are a Bill Anderson fan or someone interested in the older Opry members you will probably enjoy this entertaining book.

This was one of the most interesting biographies that I have read. It was almost impossible to put the book down.

I read this book from cover to cover! I cried with Bill & laughed with him. Until I read this book, there is a lot of personal life of Bill's that I never knew. It went straight to the heart & it was awesome to see how you leaned on Christ for answers & grew in Christ. Thanks Bill for taking the time to write this, I loved it!!!

This book covers Bill Anderson's life from childhood through his early days as a DJ to stardom as a singer and songwriter. Recommended for readers who appreciate Bill's talent and who have an interest in the country music scene in the second half of the twentieth century.

Outstanding response and service. As this book was published over 20 years ago it was not available as new. So not only did we appreciate being able to get a copy but it had been listed in good condition as it truly was! Thank you, it was a gift and is being greatly appreciated.

bought this for my dad....he is really enjoying reading it...he watches family's country reunion on directv and it helps to know the history/life of some of the people on the show!

every country music fan should read this book....very enjoyable & enlightening...keeps your interest all through and you get a complete story of one of the best entertainers
