Customer Reviews

Great choice of songs!! However, not quite the arrangements I expected. Seemed to have a lot of different sounding chords as well as minor key signatures which typically I don't care for. There's two or three songs I do enjoy but overall the arrangements were not my favorite. The difficulty was perfect as the songs sound nice but don't take heavy practice.

I love the contemporary song selections and arrangements of them. Approximate performance times are given for each selection. If you need to do a shorter version of a piece, however, you can easily lift out sections that will stand on their own without having to do the whole piece.

This book was just what I was looking for! The arrangements are beautiful, just the right amount of difficulty, and a great selection of songs. I can't wait to master these - such a great book.

I remember Jan Sanborn recordings from the 1960's. I assume it's the same person. I feel the level was more Intermediate. I was looking for something more challenging from her.

These arrangements do not do the songs justice.

Definitely the songs are beautiful, but the arrangements are horrible for me... I don't recommend this book.
