Hymns For Meditation

Synopsis

Church pianists are often asked to provide music that is reflective and meditative in nature. The six hymns in this collection by Martha Mier were chosen because of their beauty and for the messages of comfort and hope that they convey. Titles: In the Garden * It Is Well with My Soul * Near to The Heart of God * Sweet Hour of Prayer * 'Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus * What A Friend We Have In Jesus

This book is really great for Intermediate Piano Players! I love to start my students out with these (when they begin playing offertories.) The selections are long enough for the kids to feel accomplished, but yet short enough for an offertory. Another great thing is that the songs are arranged in easy keys for the little people. YAY! So refreshing! Gives us some breathing room to work on dynamics instead of always drilling the scales and junk. Good Job to Martha Mier! You are quite popular with many intermediate pianists! These are creative, but the chording is simple, and they're so "flowy", that they sound simply elegant. There are a few octave reaches, so beware about that all you tiny-handed people :).

Hymns For Meditation was a little bit too easy but the arrangements were still very pretty and I enjoyed playing them.

...of old-time favorites that are soothing and worshipful. These pieces are complex enough to sound ethereal, yet easy enough to accomplish as an intermediate piano player. I hope to find more collections like this one to add to my repertoire.

I would say that the arrangements are simpler than "Late Intermediate" but I love them and get a lot of compliments from church family. I would recommend them if you're not good at improvising.

I found it difficult for my skills. It will challenge me.

Beatifull

Good to play but sometimes a bit dramatic for our smaller Meeting.

I was disappointed I have other music of hers that I liked
