Customer Reviews

I don't think I've given a coloring book 5 stars yet. This may be a first. I love it! The weight of the book is good enough that you don't feel like you just purchased some dollar store item. I love that it is single printed pages and not back to back. No one wants to finish coloring a page only to turn to the next and realize the color shows through or bled through. That shouldn't be a problem here as long as you aren't one to trail your hand along at a snails pace. I did some tests swatches on the memo page in the back. Pencil, marker and highlighter didn't show through at all. Water color did only slightly if it had too much water in the brush. The artwork is great. The detail is perfect. It is detailed enough to keep you interested. I like that it is also not so intricate that it overwhelms your mind so it is still relaxing. Some are more detailed than others so there is something for everyone here. I think my only suggestions would be for perforated pages for anyone who gasp tears out the pages end gasp to color them. However, the book folds open very nicely to color without the need to tear it up. The other would be to relocate the website address or replace it with a small copyright mark. That did annoy me a little. As the title should make clear I obviously wouldn't recommend this to anyone that is vocabulary sensitive. We all know someone who is and just takes the fun out of it for the rest of us. In closing, I am pleasantly surprised with this book and will most likely be going back and picking up his other books. I am glad I purchased this and would recommend it to others. I did NOT receive any compensation for this review and paid for my copy.
